EXODUS 17:3-7	ROMANS 5:1-2,5-8	JOHN 4:5-42

We all know that we need certain things to survive and you might have heard of the saying that you can only live 3 minutes without oxygen, 3 days without water and 30 days without food. Yet, whatever we consume, be it a gas, liquid or a solid, we need to exist in the first instance in order to participate in life. This brings us to the concept of God's role in our life, God holds us in existence each and every moment; we are not just physical beings, but physical beings with a spiritual life. We know that the body has certain requirements in order for it to be sustained but we rarely think about our spiritual needs and the things that we need to be spiritually sustained. Jesus gives us a clear message this Sunday, that we really do need him in order to be truly satisfied and truly alive. If we have his spirit in us we have a water source that springs up in us to eternal life. We need to tap into the source, each and every moment of our lives; sometimes we do this consciously in our time of prayer and spiritual reflection. We can also do this in a more passive way, for example, we can form the intention to offer our day of work to Jesus and from time-to-time we can reaffirm that decision throughout the day, as we turn our mind and heart to God. In this way, we always remain close to the source of spiritual nourishment that sustains the most important aspect of our lives, namely, our relationship with God.

Blessings, Fr Tony

Catechism of the Catholic Church: At the Wellsprings of Prayer

2652 The Holy Spirit is the living water "welling up to eternal life" in the heart that prays. It is he who teaches us to accept it at its source: Christ. Indeed in the Christian life there are several wellsprings where Christ awaits us to enable us to drink of the Holy Spirit.

The Word of God

2653 The Church "forcefully and specially exhorts all the Christian faithful . . . to learn 'the surpassing knowledge of Jesus Christ' (Phil 3:8) by frequent reading of the divine Scriptures.... Let them remember, however, that prayer should accompany the reading of Sacred Scripture, so that a dialogue takes place between God and man. For 'we speak to him when we pray; we listen to him when we read the divine oracles.'"

2654 The spiritual writers, paraphrasing Matthew 7:7, summarize in this way the dispositions of the heart nourished by the word of God in prayer "Seek in reading and you will find in meditating; knock in mental prayer and it will be opened to you by contemplation."
